Menu suggestions

We are looking forward to seeing you in...

Dear guests,

We would like to whet your appetite for our restaurants with our banquet suggestions.

We appreciate the interest you have shown in our services, which we are pleased to offer in our restaurants.

Please take your time when choosing your menu for groups for at least 15 persons. We will gladly assist you at any time in planning and holding your events.

Please select one single menu or buffet (buffet for at least 30 persons) from the following suggestions. If individual dishes do not appeal to you, you can exchange them with courses from other menus.

Give free rein to your palate when compiling your dishes.

We will recalculate prices accordingly, if necessary.

The entire Aigner team is at your disposal to make your wishes come true.

Depending on the season we would be pleased to make seasonal menu recommendations, as well as take dietary requirements into account.

We are happy to pair our wines from our own vineyard with your chosen menu.

Vegetarian and vegan

For making a perfect salad you just need four characters: one who is wasting the oil, a nickel nurser for the vinegar, a wise man for the salt and a fool for the pepper.

Francois Coppée (French poet and novelist)

Starters:

Salad from the garden plot and roasted nuts with a dressing of pomegranates served on a goat's cheese

Potato-wasabi soup with butter croutons

Caramelised chicory with pears and goat cheese

Caprese (tomato-mozzarella) backed in rice paper and served with pignolia vinaigrette

Green papaya-coco salad *

The only way to get rid of temptation is to yield to it. I can resist everything but temptation.

Oscar Wild (Irish writer and poet)

Main courses:

Celery schnitzel breaded in coco with yoghurt-chives sauce

Polenta filled with porcini mushrooms served on lukewarm tomato salad

Falafel with slightly spicy sweetheart cabbage and an avocado dip *

Tofu piccata with tomato-orange sauce

Dessert

Please have a look onto our desserts written in previous menus and make your choice.

Three vegetarian and vegan courses from your option 35.00 Euro

* Suitable for vegans

Certainly for individual consumers our chef, Günter Beyer, will work out a seasonal menu as well in case above mentions dishes aren't qualified for you.
